

For Immediate Release:
Wednesday, August 29, 2018

Contact: Steve Roberts
(304) 342-1115

Pat Graney Re-Elected as W.Va. Chamber Chairman

White Sulphur Springs, W.Va. – The membership of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce unanimously re-elected Patrick C. Graney, III of Charleston, WV to serve a second term as Chairman of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Graney is the chairman of PCG, Inc. Investment Company.

Chamber President Steve Roberts said, “West Virginia has accomplished so much during Pat’s first term as Chairman of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce. We are in the midst of an economic turnaround, and Pat is a steadfast leader that is committed to continuing this important growth.”

Robert’s continued, “Pat is an experienced businessman who knows first-hand what it takes to start and grow a successful business in West Virginia. I look forward to working with him in the coming year to continue advocating for a bright future for our state.”

In addition to re-electing Pat Graney as Chairman, the Board of Directors also re-elected Steve Robey, CEO of Arnett Carbis Toothman, LLP to serve as Vice-Chairman. Maribeth Anderson of Southwestern Energy was elected as the Treasurer of the West Virginia Chamber, and Anna Dailey of Dinsmore & Shohl LLP was elected to serve as Secretary. All officers and members of the Board of Directors will serve until next year’s Annual Meeting on Wednesday, August 28, 2019.

Members of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce are your small business neighbors. Chamber members employ over half of our state’s workforce and are found in every county and region of our state.

###